SIGNIFICANT SIGNS

- Filius 64%, Spiritus 6%, Heaven's Gate 28%.
- Pater and Trinitas are almost absent. Mary and Stonemasons are absent.
- Way of Heaven, Greek Cross, Patriarchal Cross, and trinitarized Saint Andrew's Cross predominate.
- The semicircles are on the edges of the ashlar that are the closing line of the semicircle.
- It was the depository of a lignum crucis, splinter from the Christ's cross. It was brought usually from Orient, which would justify the abundance of Patriarchal Cross.
